Alcohol: 12.5%

The youthfulness of this wine shows but on a very refreshing and fun way! Arnaud L'Epine, the winemaker has been working consistently to improve the quality of his wines year after year.

This Syrah will totally convince you of the intrinsic goodness of this beautiful region of ours, the Languedoc!

Château du Parc has a long and noble history. Its walls used to enclose hundreds of acres of hunting grounds of a high minister of the King of France in the 15th century! Its magnificent buildings are still standing and the walls have protected the vines from environmental damage. Arnaud is the current landlord, quite intent in keeping the reputation of this century-old property at the forefront of today's search for quality products.
